Oxygen is elemental, but not always accessible. Many of these deaths could be prevented with simple interventions, like oxygen. Oxygen is for oxygen.

At least 1.5 million children hospitalized for pneumonia will require oxygen treatment.

15% of all pregnant women develop a potentially life-threatening complication that may require emergency intervention—including oxygen—to survive.

Find out more: info@path.org