INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the LIFE PLANNING SKILLS!

LIFE PLANNING SKILLS (LPS) is designed to help you, the youth of Ghana, to face the challenges of growing up, to help you make decisions about your sexual health, and to prepare you for work in the future.

Young people today face many challenges:
- Growing numbers of teenage pregnancies
- School dropouts
- Drug use

Social, sexual, and reproductive health problems like date rape, sexually transmitted infections (STIs), including human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), and acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS), are other challenges.

All these and many more make it really hard for young people to cope. For young men and women, adolescence is a time filled with excitement, new feelings, many unanswered questions, changes, and difficult choices. You must know the facts about your own sexuality and learn skills to help you prepare for a happy future and healthy life.

During your teenage years you will have relationships with peers\(^1\) of the same and opposite sex. At the same time, you will need to have respectful, loving relationships with family members, and you still need to learn about making decisions on your own. You must also learn to deal with new feelings about sexuality, your physical and emotional changes, and how to make responsible decisions about reproduction and parenthood.

LIFE PLANNING SKILLS helps you:
- Recognize the importance of adhering to values.
- Learn more about how the body functions.
- Think about and plan for your future.
- Deal with sexual and reproductive changes, feelings, and behaviours, and ways to channel these energies to help create a bright future.

This workbook is for you to use and keep as you participate in this LIFE PLANNING SKILLS meeting. It has many interesting activities, exercises, and facts to help you on your journey to a healthy life.

\begin{quote}
LIFE PLANNING SKILLS helps you find out who you are now, where you are heading, who you hope to become, and how to get to where you want to be.
\end{quote}

\(^1\) A person who is of equal standing with another; one belonging to the same societal group especially based on age, grade, or status. A companion. (As defined by the Merriam-Webster’s Collegiate Dictionary, Eleventh Edition. 2003.)
LPS Objectives

The main objectives of LPS are to provide you with a chance to:

- Learn more about yourself: what you like to do; what you are good at doing; how to use your skills and talents to improve your life; how you feel about key issues such as family and personal values; and what influences the development of feelings and choices.

- Identify what you want to happen in your life and help you work towards building a good future by planning for work and parenthood goals.

- Strengthen your knowledge in three areas: sexuality, planning a family, and communication.
Section One: Who Am I?
UNIT 1:
PERSONAL, FAMILY, AND COMMUNITY VALUES

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

The purpose of this unit is to introduce and define the concept of values and help you identify values you learned from your families. The unit helps you to talk about and explain your personal values and to examine the relationship between values and behaviour.

By the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- Explain what “values” means.
- Identify personal/family/religious/cultural values.
- Explore where values come from.
- Discover which values are most important to you.
- Understand how personal values can affect your behaviour.
- Learn how to make decisions that go along with personal values.
- Practise communicating your values to others.
- Practise accepting and respecting values of others.
ACTIVITY

UNDERSTANDING VALUES

MY VALUES

In the space below, write two values that are important to you.

Two values that are important to me are:

1.

2.
ACTIVITY

HOW DO YOU THINK YOUR FAMILY FEELS ABOUT...?

In your groups, discuss what you learnt from your family about the following:

Group 1
- a. Using alcohol or other drugs for fun.
- b. Forcing someone to have sex.
- c. Buying condoms to use if you have sex.
- d. Having a baby before you are married.

Group 2
- e. Staying a virgin as long as possible.
- f. Respecting your elders.
- g. Going to church regularly.
- h. Treating sons better than daughters.

Group 3
- i. Getting a job or learning a skill to help earn money.
- j. Having sex in exchange for money or gifts.
- k. Stealing from others.
- l. Going to a traditional healer if you are sick.

Group 4
- m. Having more children than you can afford.
- n. Furthering your education.
- o. Showing respect for your ancestors.
- p. Having sex with an adult who will buy you gifts, clothing, etc.
ACTIVITY

GOOD DECISION MAKING

Read through the scenario below and use the 3C’s model (Challenges, Choices, and Consequences) to come to a decision.

Scenario
Your mother is going away for the weekend. She has told you not to invite anyone over to the house. You promise her that you will not. Whilst she is away your friend from school has a fight with her dad and he puts her out of the house. She asks if she could spend one night at your place—she does not know your mother is away. What would you do?

1. What is the CHALLENGE that you are faced with?

2. What are your CHOICES? Think about these and write three of them in the space below.

   Choice 1:

   Choice 2:

   Choice 3:

WAYS TO BUILD MY SELF-ESTEEM

Think of what you can do to build your self-esteem. Write down as many ways that you can think of.
ACTIVITY

KEY LESSONS LEARNT

Based on the information discussed and the learning that took place, give answers to the following:

1. What is the most important piece of information that you have learnt from this unit?

2. Why or how is this information important to you?

3. How does this information influence you to change your behaviour?
MY COMMITMENT

4. Think about the discussions around values that took place in this unit. What commitment are you going to make to yourself based on what you learnt about values? You will not be asked to share this with anyone.

5. Write your commitment in the space below.

UNIT 2: ADOLESCENT DEVELOPMENT

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

This unit describes the physical, social, and emotional changes that take place during adolescence.

By the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- Explain what “adolescence” means.
- Describe the physical and emotional changes that occur during adolescence.
- Describe the male and female reproductive anatomy and physiology.
- Understand menstruation and pregnancy.
ACTIVITY

THE FEMALE REPRODUCTIVE SYSTEM 1

1. Where the lines indicate, write the names of female anatomy parts in the diagram below. Write in as many as you know.

FEMALE REPRODUCTIVE SYSTEM 1:
OUTER SEXUAL AND REPRODUCTIVE PARTS
FACTS: FEMALE REPRODUCTIVE SYSTEM

The Outer Sexual and Reproductive Parts of the Female Body Include:

- The vulva is found in the front of the body between a woman’s thighs. The different parts of the vulva make up a woman’s outside sex organs.
- The hairy, fatty part over the pubic bone is called the mons pubis.
- The two folds, or labia majora, protect the urinary and vaginal openings.
- The two inner lips, or labia minora, that lie between the outer lips are without hair and are very sensitive.
- The clitoris is found where the inner lips meet, just below the fatty part over the pubic bone. It is small and shaped like a flower bud. It is very sensitive to touch. Touching it and the surrounding area helps a woman to get sexually excited.
- The outside opening of the urinary passage, called the urethra, lies below the clitoris. It leads directly to the bladder. Urine (wee) leaves the body through your urethra.
- The vaginal opening is the outside end of the vagina. Babies are born through this opening.
- The hymen is a thin skin that surrounds the vaginal opening and partly blocks it. It can break easily. This can happen with exercise, sexual intercourse, or with any direct force on it.
- The perineum is the area lying between the end of the vulva and the anus in a woman and between the scrotum and the anus in a man.
- The anus is the opening below the perineum. Body waste (faeces) passes through this opening.

The Inner Reproductive Parts Include:

- The vagina leads from the vulva to the womb. It is moist and self-cleaning. It is lined with folds of skin that stretch easily during sexual intercourse and when giving birth.
- The uterus or womb is a hollow organ that is shaped like an upside down pear. It is here, inside the womb, where the foetus grows during pregnancy.
- The cervix is the mouth of the womb. The cervix connects the womb with the vagina and protects the womb. It makes it impossible for objects such as fingers, the penis, condoms, or a tampon to enter the womb.
- The Fallopian tubes are found at each side of the upper end of the womb. They reach outwards towards the ovaries. When a female egg (ovum) is released from an ovary it is sucked into the Fallopian tubes. The ovum then begins its journey through the tube to the womb.
- Women have two ovaries, one on each side of the womb. The tubes connect them to the womb. The female eggs and hormones are made in the ovaries.
ACTIVITY

THE MALE REPRODUCTIVE SYSTEM

1. Where the lines indicate, write the names of male anatomy parts in the diagram below. Write in as many as you know.

MALE REPRODUCTIVE SYSTEM: SEXUAL AND REPRODUCTIVE PARTS
FACTS: MALE REPRODUCTIVE SYSTEM

The Main Outer Reproductive Parts of the Male Body Include:
- The scrotum is a muscular sac hanging between the man’s thighs. The scrotum holds the testes.
- The testes are two balls that sit in the scrotum and produce sperm and the male hormone called testosterone.
- The penis is the male outer sex organ. Inside the penis there is a tube called the urethra that has a hole at the end. The urethra has two main roles: 1) it carries urine to the outside of the body, and 2) it allows semen to come out when a male is sexually excited.
- The foreskin is the skin that covers the head of the penis. It can be rolled back to show the head of the penis. This is the skin that is removed during circumcision.

The Inner Reproductive Parts Include:
- Sperm are the tiny cells also known as male eggs. Sperm are produced in the testes and stored in the epididymis. Sperm production begins at puberty and goes on throughout a male’s lifetime.
- The epididymis stores the sperm until they are matured. Once the sperm is matured it travels along the tube called the vas deferens.
- The seminal vesicles are two pouches containing fluids that nourish the sperm.
- The prostate gland produces lubricating fluid for sperm.
- Semen contains the sperms from the testes, the nourishing fluids from the seminal vesicles, and lubricating fluids from the prostate gland. Semen is the fluid that leaves the man’s body through the urethra during sexual excitement.
SOME TIPS FOR MALES: TAKING CARE OF YOUR TESTICLES

Your testicles are an important part of your reproductive system. It is important that they are cared for and protected.

Here are some points on how to keep your testicles in good working condition:

- Avoid wearing tight pants/underpants.
- Keep the genital area cool.
- Clean the genital area properly each day with soap and water.
- Wear cotton rather than synthetic (man-made) material.
- Protect the genital area during sports.
- Check your testicles regularly for any strange growths or lumps. If any are found, visit a health clinic or talk to someone such as a nurse or teacher about what to do.

UNIT 3: COMMUNICATION

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

This unit examines the role of communication in every aspect of life. It provides a range of activities for you to practise effective communication in different settings and helps you examine your inter-personal communication skills.

By the end of this unit you should be able to:

- Explain the importance of communicating your needs.
- Understand verbal and non-verbal communication.
- Know the barriers to effective listening.
- Describe how to improve your listening skills.
- Apply listening and communication skills to real life.
TIPS ON ACTIVE LISTENING

1. Stop talking: Obviously you cannot talk and listen at the same time. The most important rule of listening is to stop talking.

2. Remove distractions: If something is distracting you, get rid of it. Turn off the television or cell phone, turn down the radio, and do not fiddle with things.

3. Concentrate: Listening takes concentration. Do not let your mind wander off onto other things. Do not think about what you are going to say but rather listen to what the other person is saying.

4. Look interested: We communicate more non-verbally (by expressions) than we do verbally. If a person is in doubt they will tend to believe the non-verbal messages rather than the verbal messages. Maintain good eye contact without staring.

5. Hear more than words: Listen with your eyes. Watch for non-verbal signs, in the face, eyes, hands, and tone of voice. Look for feelings behind the words. Often what is said at first is not what is really felt or meant. If in doubt, trust the non-verbal signs rather than the verbal ones.

6. Check that you are hearing right: Often the message we hear is not the same as the message the other person thinks they are telling us. Do not say "I see" or "I understand" unless you are sure that you do. From time to time, repeat and summarize what you hear being said.

7. Ask clarifying questions: This shows you are listening and encourages the other person to keep talking. It helps the other person to work out what is concerning them and how they can sort it out.

8. Be patient: Listening takes time—you need to be prepared to give it. If you have not got time at that moment, explain this to the person and offer to make time to listen later. It often takes time for a person to get to what they really want to talk about. You need to be prepared to hear their chitchat so that the person can ease into telling you what is really on their mind.

9. Be non-judgemental: Try not to judge the person. If the person you are sharing with senses that you are having negative feelings about them, they may close up and cease to talk openly with you. Your role as a listener is to create an atmosphere that is open and safe, and that will help the other person freely and honestly share their feelings.

10. Stop talking: Again, this is the hardest part of active listening but the most important.
Dos and Don’ts of Listening

In listening we should try to do the following:

- Show interest.
- Be understanding of the other person.
- Single out the problem if there is one.
- Listen for causes of the problem.
- Encourage the speaker to believe that s/he can solve the problem.
- Know when to remain silent.

In listening we should not do the following:

- Argue.
- Interrupt.
- Pass judgement too quickly or in advance.
- Give advice unless the speaker asks for it.
- Jump to conclusions.
- Let the speaker’s emotions affect our own.
ACTIVITY

TYPES OF BEHAVIOUR

What kind of person are you? What do you do when you feel pressured by someone to do something that you do not want to do or do not like? Answer the questions below by circling letter “a,” “b,” or “c” to show what you would do in each situation. You can discuss your answers with the group if you would like to.

1. Your best friend often borrows your books but takes a long time to return them. S/he is asking you to lend her/him your new comic book. Do you:
   a. Lend the book because you do not want to hurt her/his feelings?
   b. Talk to your friend and explain why you do not want to lend the book?
   c. Tell her/him to go buy her/his own?

2. You have just met a new girl/boy. Whenever s/he visits you s/he brings you gifts. This makes you uncomfortable. Do you:
   a. Take the gifts and give them to someone else?
   b. Explain that you are uncomfortable about receiving the gifts or refuse to take them?
   c. Throw the gifts back at the person and tell her/him to “bug off”?

3. You have decided that you want to further your studies. Your mother says that you must find a job to earn money. Do you:
   a. Give up on your studies and look for a job because she says you must?
   b. Talk to her about why it is important to get an education?
   c. Argue with your mother?

4. Your close friend tries to get you to go out with a friend of hers/his whom you do not like. Do you:
   a. Go with the person because you do not want to disappoint your friend?
   b. Explain to your friend why you do not want to go out with the person?
   c. Call your friend names and get mad at her/him?

5. Your brother uses your clothes without asking and has lost your favourite jacket. Do you:
   a. Lock your wardrobe and pretend you lost the key?
   b. Talk to him about his behaviour?
   c. Pick a fight with him or take something of his that you know he really likes?

UNIT 4: SEXUALITY

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

This unit introduces the concept of responsible sexuality and provides an opportunity for you to identify messages/lessons about sexuality. The unit helps you to recognize and articulate some of the emotions that accompany adolescence. The unit also explains sexual abuse and family violence and how to handle such situations. Lastly, the unit explains rape and date rape and how to help prevent and/or cope with these situations.

By the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- Explain what “sexuality” means.
- Explain how values about sexuality affect behaviour.
- Become more comfortable talking and asking questions about sexuality.
- Describe ways to deal with sexual abuse and family violence.
- Explain rape and date rape.
- Recognize situations that can possibly lead to rape.
ACTIVITY

SEXUAL TEACHINGS

1. Think about the following questions:

a. What are the messages that I learnt about sex whilst growing up?

b. Who were the different people or influences that taught me the different messages?

c. What impact or effect have these messages had on my attitude towards sex and life in general?

d. If I were to teach other children, what would I change about these messages?

2. When you are done, the facilitator will put you into a group with other participants of the same sex. Discuss the key messages that you thought of with your group.

3. In your groups, discuss how you would change these messages to make them more suitable for youth of today. Use the following table to show how you would change any of the messages that you were taught.

COMMUNICATING EXPECTATIONS

This is the story of Kwame and Ama that you just heard. You can read through it again if you want to before doing the activity.

Kwame

I met Ama through my sister Maamle and the two of us liked each other immediately. When I invited her to the party on Saturday I was very happy that she agreed to come. When Ama arrived she looked very sexy—she must have taken a lot of time to dress and prepare for this party. Her wrapper and headscarf were beautiful and she painted her lips and nails bright red. As soon as she walked into the room our eyes met and she gave me a big smile. We started dancing and man, could she move. I was really getting turned on especially during the slow dance when Ama kept moving her hands all over my shoulders and back. It felt so good. She was giving me all the signals. The eyes, the smile, the laughter, the touching... I knew it would be soon that the two of us would leave the party to kiss and fool around. We had been drinking since the party started and were feeling great. The time felt right, so I asked Ama if she wanted to go outside for some fresh air. When she said “sure,” I knew then that the two of us were going to have sex that night.

It was a full moon outside so we took a short walk away from the flats to be alone. We headed over to some bush on the side of the road where no one would see us if they walked by. I held her close to me and I could feel her heart beating hard in her chest. I began to touch her breasts and kiss and rub her body all over. She made a few small noises and pulled away from me a little bit, but I held her hands together behind her back and told her everything was just fine. I continued kissing her and she kissed me back, then I pulled her down onto her knees and then lay her down on the thick grass.

She did ask me to wait but I thought, “What for?” We don’t have all night—somebody might miss us from the party and come looking so let’s just do it as quickly as we can. She kept repeating “No,” “don’t,” “please,” and “wait” over and over again but I knew it was all part of the game because she didn’t want me to think that she was a fast girl. So I didn’t stop because that is what girls do—they always have to pretend to put up a fight but always give in at the end. Even when Ama struggled and started crying, I knew it was all part of “the act.” I continued kissing her and simply lifted up her skirt and had sex with her.

When we were done Ama didn’t talk to me. She didn’t even look at me. I could see she was angry but didn’t understand why. I tried to ask her what I’d done but she just pulled away from me, fixed her clothes, and ran off still crying. Now I was really confused and started thinking that maybe she was upset because I came too quickly or that I put her on the grass and it scratched her back or something.
I knew she wanted to have sex with me because if she didn’t she wouldn’t have danced with me the way she did, right? Or she wouldn’t have gone outside with me, right? I just don’t know man—she still won’t talk to me so I don’t know.

Ama
I really liked Kwame, whom I met a few months ago through my friend Maamle. Maamle is his sister and she is very nice so I knew that he would be nice, too. I felt really glad that Kwame invited me to the party last Saturday and was looking forward to dancing with him so much. He was so funny and he made me laugh—we were having so much fun talking about all kinds of things. I knew he liked me from the way he was looking at me, you know, looking from my head down to my toes. He also had a really great smile that made me feel warm and relaxed inside. After dancing for a while Kwame asked me to take a walk.

I hoped it would be a chance to hold hands and maybe even kiss. I felt tingly inside at the thought of kissing him, so I agreed, and we left the party.

We didn’t walk too far from the party when we stopped near some bushes where no one could see us. Kwame and I started kissing and touching each other all over. It felt wonderful. I was enjoying his touch a lot and started feeling hot all over. We dropped down onto our knees and continued heavy petting and I could feel that Kwame was hard. That’s when I realized that maybe we should slow down a bit so I asked him to wait.

But Kwame didn’t wait or stop. He started to say I was his woman and that he loved me. That made me feel funny inside, I don’t know how really, but I still thought we should cool off. I asked him to stop again but he ignored me and put his weight on me so that I was lying down on my back. Then I got scared. I knew that I was enjoying what we were doing but I also knew that it could lead to sex, and I didn’t want to have sex just yet. I started to cry, but that didn’t make any difference to Kwame. He kept touching me and then he started undoing his belt and pants. I tried to tell him to stop, but he just smiled and kept going. Then he pushed open my legs with his knees and started having sex with me. I couldn’t believe that this was happening.

I didn’t plan to have sex with Kwame—and certainly not like that. I really didn’t think that he would force himself on me—I trusted him but he is just like all men. All they want you for is sex. When he got off me I told him how angry I was at him, and he looked at me as if I was crazy. He even asked me what I was angry for. I didn’t even talk to him; just fixed my clothes and left.

How could Kwame have done this to me?

1. Imagine that you are Kwame (if you are a boy) or Ama (if you are a girl).

2. Discuss with your group and agree on how you would respond to the feelings written in the following table. Remember to communicate clearly with your partner. Your goal is to enjoy being with your partner but not to do anything that your partner does not want, or to be forced into anything that you do not want to do.
3. As a group, discuss and decide what you think the two of them should do. Try to reach an agreement then fill in the last block, “They decide.”

4. Only fill in the area that applies to your sex (male/female).

5. Kwame starts the conversation.

GOOD DECISION MAKING

Read through the scenario below and use the 3C’s model (Challenges, Choices, and Consequences) previously discussed to come to a decision.

Scenario
You are at a party at your friend’s house. Some other friends of yours are there, including a girl/boy that you are attracted to. Later in the evening friends start to pair off and you find yourself alone with her/him.

You start talking and then dancing together. S/he is telling you that s/he has liked you for a long time and is glad for the chance to get to know you better. S/he is pushing her/his body really close to yours and starts to move her/his hand all over your back. You do not feel very comfortable with the situation but do not want to hurt her/his feelings. What do you do?

1. What is the CHALLENGE that you are facing?

2. What are your CHOICES? List at least three of these in the space below:

   Choice 1:

ACTIVITY

TIPS FOR AVOIDING OR PREVENTING ABUSE AND RAPE
(Including Date Rape)

These are just some of the things you can do. Add any others from the list that was discussed in the groups.

- Be alert to your surroundings.
- Avoid dark, lonely places at night.
- Keep a loud whistle or noisemaker on a key ring or somewhere handy.
- Keep doors and windows locked, especially if home alone.
- Walk in groups.

OTHERS: Write the others that came up in the group discussion here.
ACTIVITY

TIPS FOR PREVENTING ACQUAINTANCE/DATE RAPE

1. No matter what the circumstances, you have the right to choose when, with whom, and how you want to be sexual.

2. Ask direct questions if things get confusing.

3. Communicate clearly and directly about your limits on sexual behaviour. Say something like: “I will do __________, but I will not do ______________.”

4. Avoid sending mixed messages. It is OK to want to be intimate with someone and it is OK not to want to be intimate. Decide what you want sexually and do not act confused about it.

5. Find out how your date feels about the roles of men and women, especially in relationships.

6. Trust your feelings. If you begin to feel nervous or uncomfortable about the way things are going, do something about it right away. Let your date know how you feel and get away from the situation to a place where you feel more comfortable.

7. If your date tries to force you to do anything, say “NO” loudly and clearly. Yell and shout, if necessary, and resist in any way you can, including fighting back and running away.

8. Avoid alcohol and/or drugs. Using alcohol and/or drugs makes it hard to make and stick with good decisions.

Section Two: Where Am I Going?
UNIT 5: GENDER ROLES AND EQUALITY

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

This unit helps you to avoid making assumptions about what men and/or women should want or do. The unit focuses on two important areas of a young person's life: male-female relationships and selection of a vocation or job.

By the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- Explain stereotypes/assumptions about gender and how they affect relationships.
- Explain how stereotypes affect vocational choices.
- Identify your values about male and female gender roles and gender equality.
GOOD DECISION MAKING

Read through the scenario below and use the 3C’s model (Challenges, Choices, and Consequences) previously discussed to come to a decision.

Scenario
Your dad is a construction worker and you have grown up around many construction sites. You have also helped out a lot and have a lot of knowledge and skills, and you have completed a Diploma in construction at the Technical College. You see an advert for a builder with a local construction company and decide to apply. You get called for an interview and you realize that you are not taken seriously because you are young and considered inexperienced. What would you do?

1. What is the CHALLENGE that you are faced with?

2. What are your CHOICES? Think about these and write three of them in the space below.

UNIT 6:
RELATIONSHIPS

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

This unit examines different kinds of relationships and helps you to understand what can help or damage a relationship. We will also look at the qualities of an ideal partner as well as explore the arguments young people use for and against having sexual intercourse. This section also looks at how heterosexual and homosexual relationships are formed, and the advantages and disadvantages of being in a relationship.

By the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- Explain which behaviours can improve or damage a relationship.
- Talk about what qualities develop and define friendship and romantic relationships.
- Explain the word “homosexuality.”
- Explain how to make effective decisions and the consequences of choices.
- Practise making difficult decisions.
- Apply effective decision making to sexual decisions.
- Practise resisting pressure.
ACTIVITY

BUILDING HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS

You can copy the list of things that can build or damage a relationship. Write them where they belong on the ship; write down things that build a relationship on the hull, and things that can damage a relationship in the water.
ACTIVITY

MANAGING PEER PRESSURE

Copy the guidelines that the group has come up with in the space below. You can refer to this for your own use or share it with your friends.

Guidelines for Dealing With Peer Pressure
ASKING FOR A DATE

Asking for a date is difficult, because most teenagers are scared of being rejected or laughed at. Remember that asking for a date is not asking someone to commit him/herself to you in any way.

Below is a set of questions about dating. Choose one answer for each question to show how you feel. Put a tick (✓) next to the answer you choose.

1. What is the best way to ask a person for a date?
   a. Phone
   b. Face to Face
   c. Via a friend
   d. Letter
   e. By sending them an invitation to a party or special occasion
   f. Other: _____________________________

2. Who should ask for a date?
   a. Boy
   b. Girl
   c. Either
   d. Friend on the person’s behalf
   e. Other: _____________________________

3. How soon/when does a person ask for a date?
   a. When you have only just met
   b. When you have been friends for a while
   c. For a special occasion (e.g. party)
   d. Other: _____________________________

4. Where is the best place to go on your first date?
   a. To the movies
   b. To a disco
   c. To a school function
   d. To play sport
   e. For a walk
   f. To a bar
   g. On a youth-group outing
   h. Other: _____________________________
5. What is the best way to get to and from the place you are going for your date?
   a. A relative or friend can drop you and pick you up again
   b. Walk
   c. Use public transport
   d. Go together
   e. Meet at the place
   f. Other: ____________________________

REMEMBER THAT...

a. Dating is a fun thing to do when you are comfortable with the person.

b. You should know what you expect from a date and state this clearly.

c. It is best to go to public places, such as the movies, on a date so as to avoid any dangerous or unpleasant incidents, such as being forced into any sexual behaviour.

d. Anyone can have a platonic (just friendly; not romantic or sexual) relationship if he or she wants to.

e. Girls do not have to wait to be asked out; they can take the initiative to ask a boy out on a date.
ACTIVITY

GOOD DECISION MAKING

Read through the scenario below and use the 3C’s model (Challenges, Choices, and Consequences) previously discussed to come to a decision.

Scenario
You are in a new relationship with a girl/boy and all s/he wants is to spend time with you. S/he is really nice and you enjoy being with her/him, but you miss spending time with your other friends. When you tried telling her/him that the two of you need to spend time with other people, s/he accused you of wanting to sleep around. What should you do?

1. What is the CHALLENGE that you are facing?

2. What are your CHOICES? Think about these and write three of them in the space below.

HOW WOULD YOU FEEL IF…?

Read through and think about the following questions. You can make notes in the space below if you want to. You will be asked to share your feelings with the group.

HOW WOULD YOU FEEL IF…?

1. Your closest friend told you he or she was homosexual?

2. You found out that your teacher was in a homosexual relationship?

3. Your favourite pop star announced that she or he was homosexual?

4. Your brother or sister told you he or she was homosexual?

5. A man dressed as a woman sat next to you on a bus?

6. Your church minister announced that she or he was homosexual?

7. Your boyfriend or girlfriend told you he or she might be homosexual?
ACTIVITY

GUIDELINES FOR ENDING A RELATIONSHIP

Read through the following guidelines then share how you feel about them.

- Be prepared for hurt feelings. Sometimes people re-establish relationships so that they do not feel uncomfortable. This does not help but only delays the person getting in touch with how they really feel.

- Be kind and honest but not cruel. Give reasons for the break-up, but do it in the way you would like it to be done to you.

- Do not let yourself be talked out of it. Always remember why you made the decision to break up.

- Do not blame yourself or your partner. People change, especially as teenagers.

- Consider your timing. If either of you is writing exams or experiencing family problems it may be best to wait until a better time, but not too long.

- Break up in a place where you can leave safely. Being stranded is not pleasant.

- Try to stay friends. This is not always possible but it is important to try to achieve.

- Do not make promises you cannot keep. This will only prolong the difficulty.

- Try to end the relationship face-to-face. Fearing the other person’s reaction causes some people to write a letter or phone, or to get others to break up the relationship for them. This should only be done if physical abuse is feared or if living far away from each other.

UNIT 7:
TEENAGE PREGNANCY

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

This unit describes the different ways an unwanted pregnancy can be avoided. It also explains how early pregnancy affects teenagers and their families, and presents options a teenager has when pregnancy occurs and the consequences of these choices.

By the end of this unit, you should be able to:

➢ Explain how to prevent an unwanted pregnancy.

➢ Understand the consequences of early pregnancy and the options that are available for pregnant teenagers.

➢ Explain how a pregnancy occurs and suitable contraception for teens.

➢ Better understand how to make good decisions for yourself.

➢ Speak more comfortably about contraception.

PRESENTATION

OPTIONS AVAILABLE TO PREGNANT TEENAGERS

There are a few options available to pregnant teenagers. These include:

a. Termination of pregnancy (abortion). Abortion is illegal in Ghana.
b. Adoption.
c. Single parenthood.
d. Marriage.
e. Fostering.

a. Termination of pregnancy (abortion)

Facts to consider

- Abortion can evoke emotional responses.
- Abortion is illegal in many countries.
- Many religions do not support abortion.
- Some people have very strong feelings for or against abortion.

Some reasons for choosing abortion include:

- To finish education.
- To save the family name.
- To keep the pregnancy a secret.
- To please the boyfriend.
- To pursue other goals.
- To be more financially secure before having a child.
- To protect the mother’s health.
- In cases of rape or incest.

Illegal termination of pregnancy (sometimes called “back street abortion”) is more common than some people realize. Health risks include maternal death and infertility. The emotional and physical risks are higher and the girl is less likely to be counselled before or after the procedure.

b. Adoption

There are two types of adoption: adoption where the biological mother or parents of the child know the identity of the adoptive parents, and adoption where she/they do not know the identity of the adoptive parents.

Facts to consider

- Giving up a child for adoption may be a very traumatic decision for the mother and family.
- Agencies involved with adoption are not there to “take the baby away” but to assist people in making the right decisions.
UNIT 7: TEENAGE PREGNANCY

- The ultimate decision rests with the teenage mother; whether 11 years old or 18, she has to sign the legal papers.
- Once legal papers are signed, adoption becomes final. This usually takes three to four months after delivery.
- The young mother may go to a home for unmarried mothers that may assist her in making her decision.
- She may experience some emotional stress or hardships after the adoption if she:
  - Was forced into a decision.
  - Kept it a secret and is later found out.
  - Is rejected by her family or community.

Some reasons for choosing adoption include:
- Termination of pregnancy is against the girl’s principles.
- She wishes to keep the pregnancy a secret.
- She wants to finish her education.
- She wants to please her family.
- The child may have a better chance in life with another family.
- The girl may be able to start a new life.

c. Marriage
A marriage that takes place because of unplanned or unwanted pregnancy is often referred to as a “shotgun marriage” because it happens so fast, and often under pressure from the girl’s or boy’s family.

Facts to consider
- Few teenagers realize the enormous responsibility of parenting.
- Poor employment opportunities cause financial difficulties for young parents.
- The child may be resented and seen as a cause of isolation from friends.
- The young parents may mourn the loss of missed opportunities.
- Young parents may feel trapped.
- If they live with their own parents, they may have no privacy.
- Emotional immaturity contributes to an inability to cope and to instability in the relationship.
- The pressures of young parenthood may lead to marital conflict.

Some reasons for choosing marriage include:
- Parents force it on the young people.
- The young parents want to give the child a name.
- The young parents feel it is their payment for making a mistake.
- The young parents want to leave their unhappy homes.
- The young parents may feel it was “meant to be.”
d. Single parenthood
This is a more common choice among teenagers but often they find that their education, career, and marriage opportunities may be restricted because of it.

Facts to consider
- A child is a 24-hour responsibility—this is often not seriously considered by young people.
- A young parent’s earning capacity is limited, resulting in a lower socio-economic lifestyle and fewer advantages in life.
- A young parent is frequently unable to afford babysitters and entertainment.
- Single parenthood often results in social isolation and loneliness.
- The child may become disadvantaged, neglected, or abused.
- If the adolescent mother continues living at home, it may result in confusion of roles with her own parents and eventually lead to conflict.
- The adolescent father:
  - May experience conflict regarding his rights.
  - May be the “forgotten factor.”
  - Must decide on the child maintenance payment.

Some reasons for choosing single parenthood include:
- The belief that it is a more acceptable choice.
- The girl’s own parents may help raise the child.
- Either the boys’ or girls’ parents may want a grandchild.
- The young mother has unrealistic ideas about having and supporting a baby.
- The young parent may think it is his/her “payment” for making a mistake.

e. Fostering
This is sometimes not considered a favourable option, mostly because some people think it is traumatic for both the child and the foster parents when the biological mother retrieves the baby.

Some reasons for choosing fostering include:
- The teenage mother is able to finish her education.
- The teenage mother is able to take responsibility when she is more prepared or ready.

UNIT 8:
SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED INFECTIONS

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

This unit aims to help you understand sexually transmitted infections (STIs) and encourages you to delay your first sexual activity. If you are already sexually active then this unit encourages you to use condoms correctly each time you have sex. It also helps to build important communication skills so that you can discuss and negotiate your sexual needs or preferences, and looks at other ways you can express your sexual feelings other than sexual intercourse, and how self-esteem affects your ability to protect yourself.

By the end of this unit, you should be able to:

➤ Explain basic facts about STIs.

➤ Correct misinformation about unprotected sexual intercourse and its consequences.

➤ Explain how to use abstinence and condoms to reduce the risk of STI transmission.

➤ Practise communication skills related to STI prevention.

➤ Discuss the importance of self-esteem for behavioral change.

➤ Identify where in the community sexual health services are located. (Optional)

➤ Explain, through field experience, how it feels to seek services, condoms, and other methods of risk reduction in the community. (Optional)
GOLDEN RULES OF STIs

If you think you may have an STI, you should:

1. Go for treatment as soon as you think something is wrong or you notice something that is not right/normal with your body.

2. Tell anyone with whom you have had unprotected sexual intercourse that you may have an STI. Both of you must be treated to avoid re-infection.

3. Finish the course of medicines given. Go back for a check-up to make sure the infection is gone.

4. Avoid sex or use a condom properly each time you have sexual intercourse.

5. Go back to the doctor if you do not feel better.

REMEMBER THAT....

a. Anyone can get an STI.

b. STIs can be spread through unprotected sexual intercourse or sexual activity.

c. Both sexual partners must be treated to make sure that there is no chance of re-infection.

d. Abstinence or proper use of condoms are the only effective methods of preventing STI transmission.

e. Most STIs can be cured but some, such as herpes and HIV, have no cure.
ACTIVITY

HARD TALK

Read the following scenario and follow the instructions below:

Scenario
You have been itching around your genitals for a few days, and now you have a slight discharge as well. You went to the clinic and were told that you have an STI. The doctor gave you medicine and said you should bring your partner for treatment as well. How would you raise this with your sex partner?

Instructions:

a. Imagine that you are now going to tell your partner.

b. Discuss how you would tell your sexual partner that you have an STI.

c. Choose one person from your group to role play your responses. S/he will team up with a participant from the other group and present the role play.

d. You have 15 minutes to do this.
ACTIVITY

WHY NO CONDOMS?

1. Below is a list of common reasons that many young people give for not wanting to use a condom.

2. With your partner, read through and discuss what you could reply to say why you should use a condom.

3. Choose one reply that you both feel is a good one and write it in the space provided.

i. None of my other boyfriends ever used a condom. Don't you trust me?

j. Do I look like I have a disease?

k. Just this once…I promise to use one next time.

l. I won't have sex if you want us to use a condom.

m. I don't have a condom with me.

n. You carry a condom around with you? You were planning to have sex with me!

o. I love you. Would I give you an infection?
USING A CONDOM CORRECTLY

Lots of teenagers feel that condoms do not work. THEY DO!!... if they are stored and used properly. These pictures show how to put on and take off a condom so that it does not tear or get damaged.

1. Remove the rolled condom from the package. Be careful not to damage the condom by twisting, biting, or tearing the package.

2. The condom is placed on the end of the erect penis. Press the tip of the condom to squeeze out air and leave a place for the semen to collect.

3. Keep holding the tip of the condom as you unroll it over the erect penis. Unroll all the way to the base of the penis.

4. Soon after ejaculation (coming), but before the penis softens, hold the condom at the base of the penis and remove the penis from your partner’s vagina.

5. Keep the condom away from your partner’s body. If semen spills, wash it off immediately. Wrap the condom in a tissue and dispose of it in a toilet or dustbin. Never throw condoms onto the ground or in flush toilets.
GOLDEN RULES OF MALE CONDOM USE

Learn the following tips on how to use a condom properly.

- Check the expiry date on the packet. Never buy a condom that has no date stamp or is outdated.
- Use a condom only once. A new condom should be used for every sexual act.
- Do not have "a little sex first" before putting on a condom.
- Buy latex condoms that have a teat or nipple at the tip, as this acts as a reservoir for the semen and helps keep the condom from bursting.
- If the condoms are not lubricated, do not use lubricants with an alcohol, oil, or petroleum base, such as baby oil or Vaseline® as this will cause the condom to break.
- Use water-based lubricants such as K-Y Lubricating Jelly®.
- Do not use or buy condoms if the wrapper is broken or dried out.
- Do not cut the condom pack with scissors or rip it with teeth as this could tear the condom. Find the part of the packet that guides the opening and use your fingers to pull the wrapper apart.
- Store the condom in a cool, dry place.
- Never leave condoms in the glove compartment of a car, or in a wallet, or pocket that is close to the body as sunlight and heat destroy them.
- If condoms are kept in a bag or pocket as a precaution, regularly check the expiry date and condition, and replace when necessary.

REMEMBER: If condom is not on then penis is not in!

UNIT 9: HIV AND AIDS

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

This unit aims to help you understand how HIV is mainly transmitted (through sexual activity) and how HIV causes AIDS. The unit looks at facts and myths about HIV and AIDS and builds skills and knowledge to help you make informed choices and educate your peers. The unit also puts great emphasis on living positively with HIV and how to deal with the stigma associated with being HIV-positive.

By the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- Explain basic facts about HIV and AIDS.
- Correct misinformation about transmission and prevention of HIV infection.
- Understand and be able to explain safer sex behaviours.
- Know and explain how to live positively with HIV and AIDS.
WORKBOOK ACTIVITY

FROM HIV TO AIDS

Read through the following facts on HIV and AIDS. The facilitator will give you time to ask any questions that you have.

A person who is HIV-negative has a lot of healthy body cells called CD4 or T-cells (our body soldiers) in his or her immune system. This person is said to have a high “CD4 count.” A person that is infected with HIV also has a high CD4 count in the beginning, but this gets lower as HIV starts to attack and destroy the immune system.

A person with HIV can have the virus for a very long time before s/he starts feeling sick. Some people may feel a bit sick soon after being infected and may think that s/he has the flu, but many people can be HIV-positive for as long as eight years or more and not know that something is wrong.

From 2 to 12 weeks after a person is infected with HIV by having unprotected sex with an HIV-positive person (or other ways, such as sharing needles), a blood test will not show that the person is HIV-positive. This is because there are not enough special cells that the body produces to fight off infections (called antibodies) in the body to be detected by the test. During this time, however, the person can continue to spread the virus through unprotected sexual activity. The virus also continues to destroy the CD4 cells, weakening the immune system in the process.

Although the person does not feel or look ill, the body is getting weaker and cannot fight off infection as well as it could before. The longer the person goes without knowing that s/he is HIV-positive, the sooner s/he may develop AIDS because s/he is less likely to take extra care of his or her body. A person who is HIV-positive should avoid smoking and drinking because cigarettes directly affect the lungs and alcohol affects the blood stream. This helps to weaken the immune system.

A person who is HIV-positive can get sicker and sicker as the virus reproduces itself (multiplies) and continues to destroy the immune system. When there are more viruses in the body, the less healthy body soldiers there are. When there are many HIV virus particles in the body and the number of CD4 cells is low, the person is said to have a high “viral load” and low “CD4 count.” This is when the person starts to get AIDS. When there are not enough CD4 cells to fight infection it is easier for other sicknesses like TB and pneumonia to attack the body, making the person sick and likely to die much faster.
ACTIVITY

AM I AT RISK?

1. Read through the following sentences and ask yourself the following questions. Write “Y” for yes, “N” for no, or “U” for unsure on the line next to each one according to what you believe.

2. Explain how you can reduce your risk of getting pregnant or getting someone pregnant, or getting an STI, including HIV. Write in the space below or use the blank pages at the end of this unit.

Am I at risk if ...

- I hug, kiss, or massage a friend? _____
- I do not protect myself when handling blood? _____
- My sexual partner has unprotected sex with others? _____
- I drink beer or other kinds of alcohol? _____
- I masturbate myself? _____
- Mosquitoes bite me? _____
- Semen or vaginal fluid touches my outer (unbroken) skin? _____
- I have unprotected sex with more than one person? _____
- I have been treated and cured of an STI in the past? _____
- I share a razor with someone? _____
- I only have sex with one partner? _____
- I do not always use a condom when having sex? _____
- I do not know if my sexual partner is HIV-infected or not? _____
Think of how you can reduce your risk of getting pregnant (or getting a girl pregnant) or of getting an STI, including HIV. Write your thoughts in the space below.

I can reduce my chances of being at risk by…

REMEMBER THAT…

1. Abstinence is the only completely safe behaviour. Condom use can only be considered “safer.”

2. There is a degree of risk with most activities that we do, especially sexual intercourse! This depends on whether there is broken skin on our partners or ourselves, and includes things like small cuts or scrapes, many of which might not be visible.

3. Having unprotected sex with one partner is risky because we cannot be 100 percent sure that that person is having sex with only us.

4. Knowing our own HIV status can help minimize the risk of HIV transmission, if we take actions to avoid spreading it.
ACTIVITY

WHY NO CONDOMS?

1. Below is a list of common reasons that many young people give for not wanting to use a condom.

2. With your partner, read through and discuss what you could say about why you should use a condom.

3. Choose one reply that you both feel is a good one and write it in the space provided.

UNIT 10: SUBSTANCE ABUSE, INCLUDING DRUGS AND ALCOHOL

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

This unit discusses how adolescents get involved in using drugs, alcohol, and other substances, and looks at ways to deal with this. It also looks at how drugs and alcohol affect a person and helps you to apply decision-making techniques to avoid drug use by providing an opportunity to practise assertive refusal skills.

By the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- Explain the risks involved in drug and alcohol abuse.
- Explain the effects of tobacco, alcohol, and other drugs on a person’s health.
- Practise decision-making and assertiveness skills needed to avoid alcohol and other drug use.

Dear Sir/Madam (use the name of the person if you know it)

RE: APPLICATION FOR TRAINEE ELECTRICIAN

I am applying for the position of Trainee Electrician as advertised in the Graphic and Times on March 25, 2003.

I completed my Electrical Technician Diploma with Wits Technikon in South Africa in 2002 and have been seeking employment since then.

For the past year I have done small jobs with different companies, but am willing and ready for full time employment. I have also done a lot of volunteer work in my community, at schools and centres that needed my service.
I feel that this job will help me build on the skills that I have gained so far and believe that I meet the requirements mentioned in the advertisement.

I am ready and willing to attend an interview at your convenience and can be contacted at the above number anytime after 14h00 daily.

I look forward to your response.

Yours sincerely,

Cindi Asare
